SECAD

Our host that enabled us to visit various community centres and prepared the study programme of our visit.

Non-governmental organisation that has support the development of South and Western Cork for 23 years. It helps in searching for financial resources and coordinates some of supported projects.

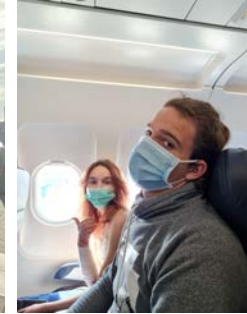

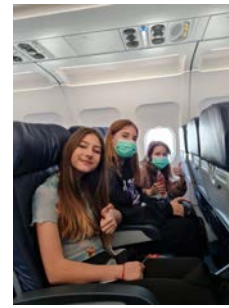

Official mission:

To provide a range of innovative and effective rural development and social inclusion supports to motivate and enable our communities to create a more vibrant, sustainable and inclusive society.

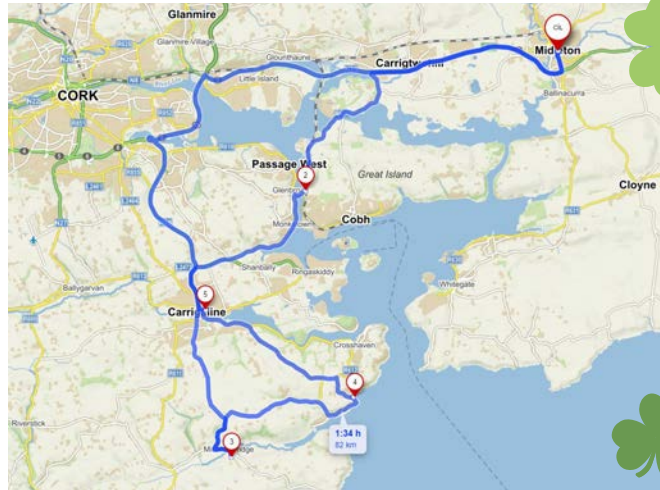

First day

- Landing in Dublin
- Taking the bus and train from Dublin to village Midleton
- Our accomodation was in Townhouse in Midleton

Second day

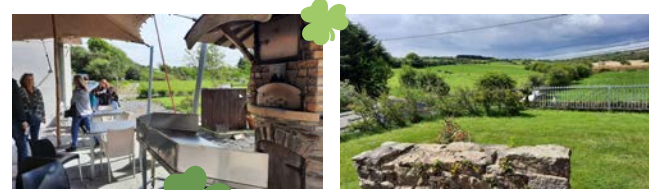

- Walking tour in Midleton
- Visiting SECAD
- We saw Tracton Arts & Community Centre and Carrigaline Youth Centre
- Some took bath at Fountainstown beach

Tracton Arts & Community Centre

You can find here anything from sports to art courses, activities for mothers with children or for seniors.

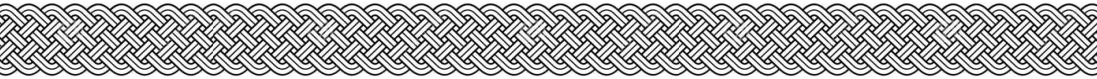

There's also a theater in the building.

Carrigaline Youth Centre

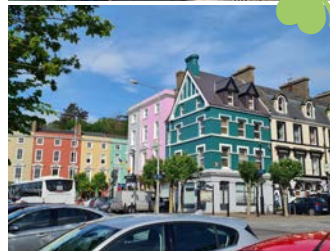

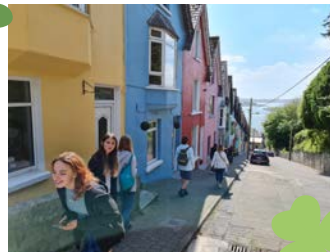

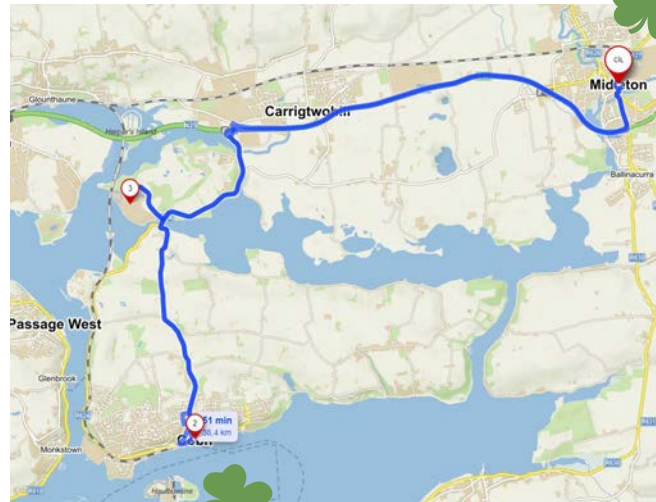

Contact place where everyone can come for advice, or ask for help and will be pointed to the right service.

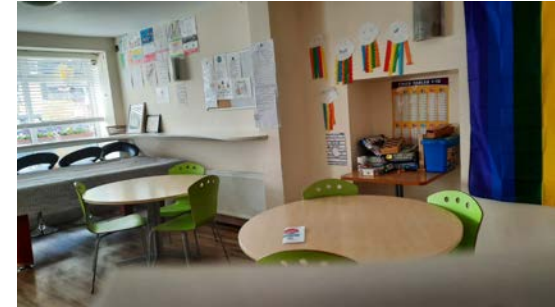

Third day

- Cobh – visit of the cathedral and tour of the city
- Community centres that we saw: Chill on the Hill – Youth Centre a CDYS & My Place Midleton
- Fota Wildlife Park

Chill on the Hill

Teenagers can help each other with homework, go to art courses or different seminars, be a member of a band, or just talk with friends.

My place Midleton

Open space for anybody from 12 to 27 twice in a week

There is a psychologist and a music band

Weekend

Saturday

- Farmers market in Middleton
- Seó youth fest in Cork
- Tour of Cork's monuments

Saturday

Sunday

What did we took from it?

- Experience of a lifetime
- Knowledge and understanding of other culture and education
- Improving English among native speakers
- Improving of the hangout collective
- Contacts with new friends for correspondence

What inspired us? What would we want in Mukařov?

- possibility of own earnings, eg. by selling handmade products, or baking
- equipment for our center (football, billiards, ping pong, boards, buffet)
- focused courses according to the interests of teens
- larger space in the future
- a festival organized by teenagers (with their own band, stands with face painting, sports)
- friendly atmosphere prevailing among all teens :)
